The YES project aims to involve relevant stakeholders in improving the understanding of challenges and opportunities of posting in relation with skills and skills recognition in the construction sector.

The workshop shall contribute to this aim by stimulating analysis and discussion among research partners and stakeholders. Inputs will be used as a source for the Policy recommendations, to be published in March 2022 at the web-site: www.yesproject.net

The project is realized with financial contribution of the European Commission, under the call for proposals VP/2019/008.

The European Commission is not responsible for the project's contents nor for the use that can be made of the information it delivers.
